

Dear Families,

Next Thursday, Nov 1st, we celebrate All Saints' Day. To our new families, if you remain uncertain about how to dress your child as a saint, please visit our school website, click media on the navigation bar, scroll down to the fourth item and you will find the All Saints' Day video from last year. <https://stmarysup.org/>

Picture retakes are tomorrow. If your child is having his/her photo taken again, and is wearing clothes other than the school uniform, please be sure s/he has the school uniform to change into after the photo is taken. Thank you.

Friday is color day and popcorn Friday. As always, dressing out of uniform must follow modesty guidelines. Thank you.

Friday we are introduced to our new virtue, Docility. Docility means the willingness to be taught. What does this look like? From our youngest students we'll be looking for students following directions and willingness to take turns. From our upper elementary students, we will be looking for students listening to teachers, following directions, and willingness to take turns. Finally, from our middle school students, we see it when they listen to others, are willing to follow directions, and thank others for rightful corrections. What does docility sound like? "Thank you for teaching me."

Hope all of you have a great week.

God bless,

Hedy A. Yanni
Principal

Our 8th graders recently attended Manufacturing Day at the middle school. Thank you Mr. Phil Sheppard and Mrs. Lisa Miller for driving/chaperoning our students for this STEM event.
