

Dear Families,

Congratulations to our local History Day winners as well and Keep Christ in Christmas poster contest winners. Please see photos below of their smiling faces! 😊

Progress Reports will be issued tomorrow. Please review your child's progress. If you have questions or concerns, please reach out to your child's teacher. Friday is parent/teacher conferences by request. This means, if a teacher or parent desires a conference – for academic or behavior concerns – either party may set up the appointment. This takes place directly between parent and teacher; if you would like to meet with your child's teacher, please contact him or her. Thank you.

Enclosed today you will find a letter regarding the Read to Them program, One School One Book. We are very excited to bring this program to our school. Please read the letter so you know what is coming for reading month in March! Should be good fun.

Also enclosed is, Latin in Your Life Vo. 2 No 3. Mrs. Shackleton, our Latin teacher, shares with us another interesting piece regarding why we study Latin and from where many of our words originate.

Believe it or not, summer is coming. Please find enclosed a flyer regarding Summer Solutions – a program to help prevent learning loss during the summer months. Order early to receive the discount.

Thursday, after Mass, we will be saying an all school rosary for Beau Korson. Everyone is welcome to join us. Prayers for Beau!

Friday is color day. $0.25 minimum donation to dress out of uniform. Please remember modesty guidelines are always part of the dress code (and friendly reminder: skinny jeans, pants, and leggings alone are not within modesty guidelines). Friday is also a half day with early dismissal at 11:00 a.m. It is NOT a popcorn Friday this month.

Hope you have a great week.

God Bless,

Hedy A. Yanni
Principal
