

Dear Families,

Catholic Schools Week is here! Thank you to all who attended our school Mass Sunday – celebrating the reason our school exists: God. By sharing in the Mass with our subsidizing parishes each year, it gives us the opportunity to show our gratefulness for their support and all they do for St. Mary's School.

We are so grateful to all of you who either have taken the time to bake or plan to volunteer in other ways this week! This week could not be as successful without the combined efforts of school and families. On behalf of our school faculty and staff, thank you, thank you, thank you!

Brrrr, it's cold outside. We changed our schedule this morning due to the negative temperatures yesterday and today. Only our 6th graders delivered baked goods to downtown businesses. Mrs. Formolo and I drove our 6th graders to the businesses – businesses were thrilled to receive the baked goods (students were thrilled not to walk in the extreme cold ☺).

For the remainder of the week, please see the CSW schedule that has been included in the Monday folder the past two weeks. Please note: Friday's pajama day must follow modesty guidelines: no tight pants (which is for every color day), no pj pants with words on the rear end, no spaghetti/tank tops, etc. Students will call home for a change of clothing if needed.

Another of God's blessings has arrived. Congratulations to Emily and Paul Weber, and family, on the new arrival of their beautiful daughter and sister, Gemma Claire!

God bless,

Hedy A. Yanni
Principal
